In November, twenty-four hopefuls of being crowned the 1979 Miss Ed White, began putting an act together that they felt would win the judges' approval. On the night of December first, after four practices and two dress rehearsals, the talent preliminaries commenced and produced sixteen contestants for the 1979 Miss Ed White Pageant. The girls immediately began selecting their evening gowns and streetwear, and worked even harder on perfecting their talent.

On the night of February 23, set to the mood of a Southern evening, the Hardwick Auditorium was filled to capacity. After the 16 contestants modeled their streetwear, evening gowns, and performed their talents, the judges selected the five finalists. Each finalist then answered a question of which they were judged on clarity and originality to help the judges make their final decision. It was: fourth runner-up, Miss Donna Mask; third runner-up, Miss Debbie Petersen; second runner-up, Miss Jeanne Dowling; first runner-up, Miss Robin Dedmon, and the new 1979 Miss Ed White, Miss Cindy Rhoden.

Debbie Petersen completes her talent routine from the overture of "Annie" with a hug. 6 Robin Dedmon sings a medley from "Cinderella" as her talent presentation. 7 Robin Dedmon expresses her opinion of Ed White as she answers her question. 8 Tracie Brinkley congratulates Donna Mask as she is announced fourth runner-up. 9 Cindy Rhoden displays her winning talent. 10 Debbie Petersen shows poise as she models her streetwear. 11 Jeanne Dowling smiles graciously as she was announced second runner-up.

WHAT'S A

SENIOR?

Dedra Dean 11-N

Someone who won't be here much longer but crams in all the fun he can

Matt Bruton.

An overaged punk

Patricia Myers:

A person who has gone through it all and who has come out smelling like a rose

Donna Navarette 12-P

A senior is a person who has gone through the first grade naps and third and fourth grade plays. He has gone through bussing and all the new tests they have come up with. A person who has finally received the right to be called a senior; he has the right to drive his car to school and pick on the little sophomores and juniors. This person who has gone through school for 12 years has earned the right to be called a mighty senior!

Maria Marra 12-N

The most privileged person in the school. . .

Daren Hoffman 12-C

A leader in the school: powerful and bold!

WHAT'S A

Jenny Vedral 10-Y:

"A junior to me is happy not having to be a sophomore and secretly sad that he's not a senior."

Sally Evans — 11-N.

"An in-betweeny."

Mary Purvis 12-R

"What the sophomores want to become."

Maria Font 12-C

"A junior has already experienced one year of being initiated into the school but try to sneak out of school because they don't have privileges that seniors do, but will usually get caught."

Fern David 12-E

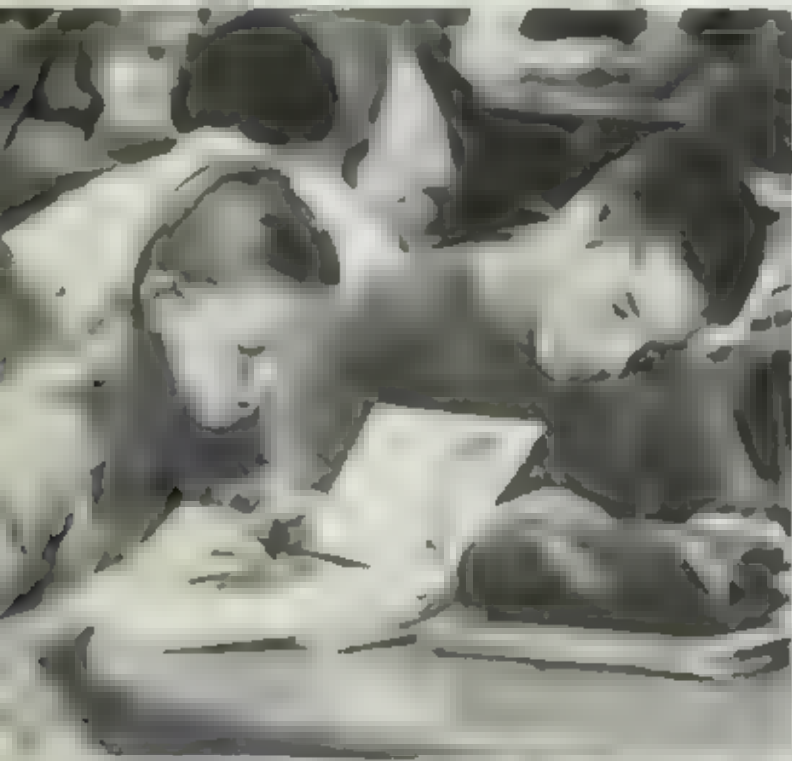

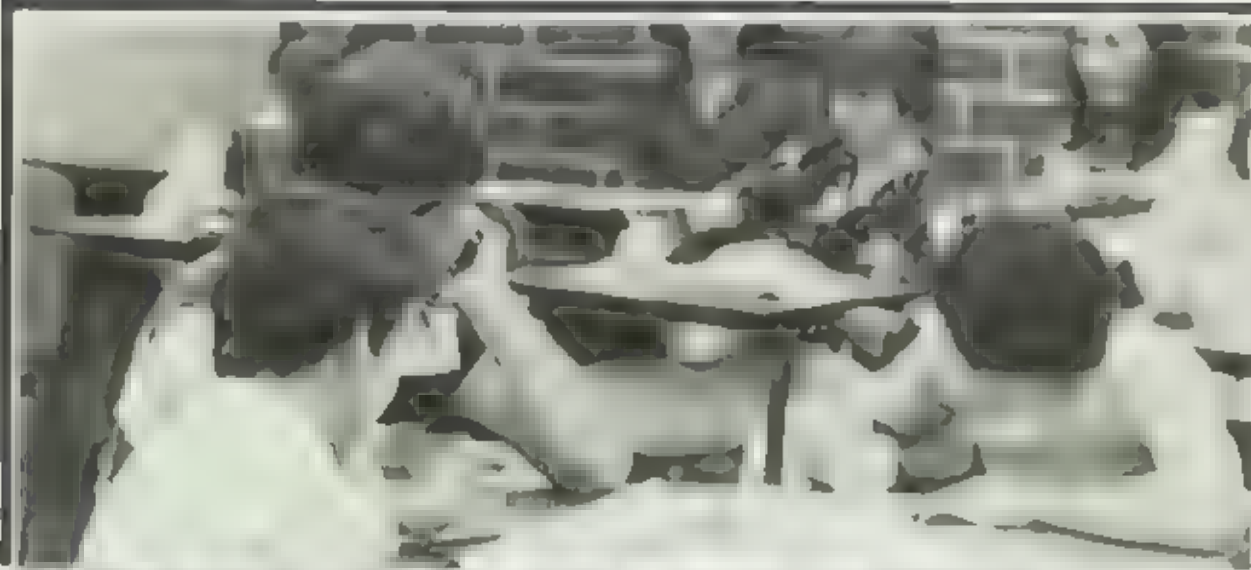

"Having to study because you goofed off the year before."

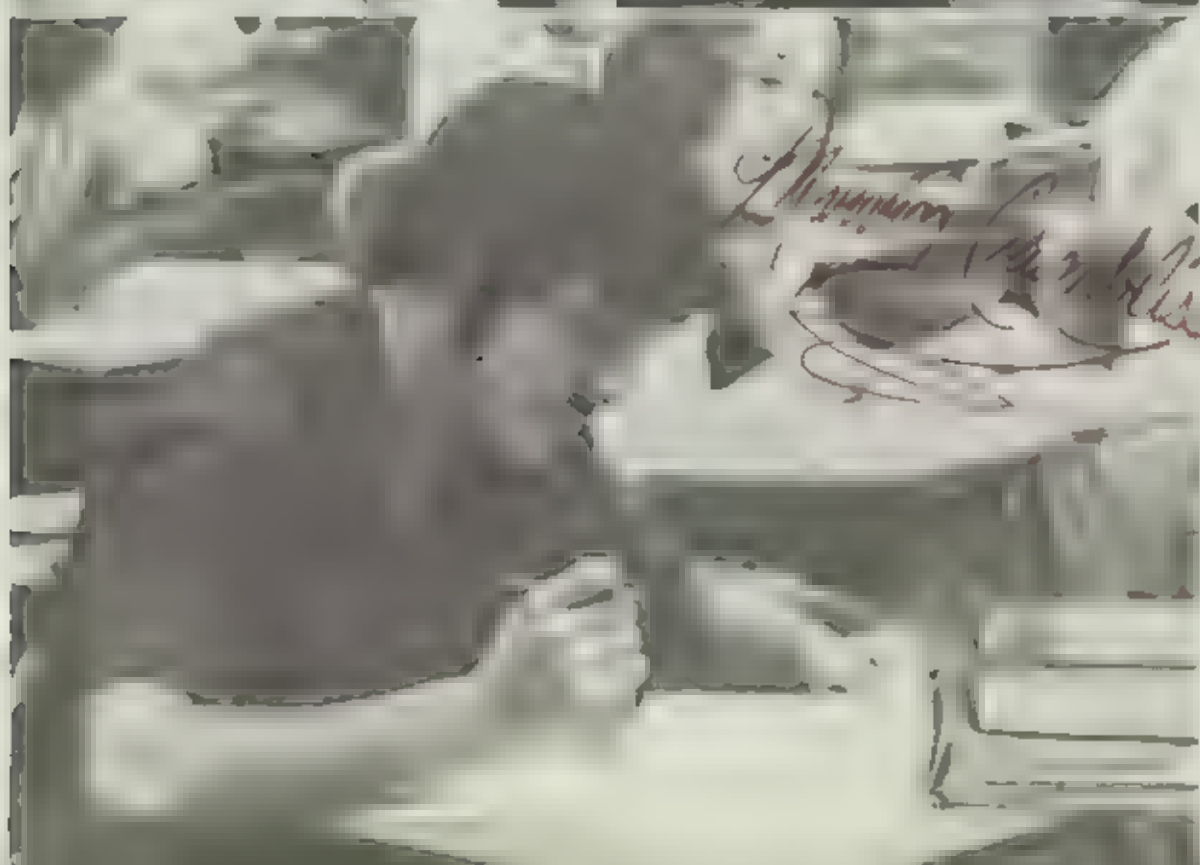

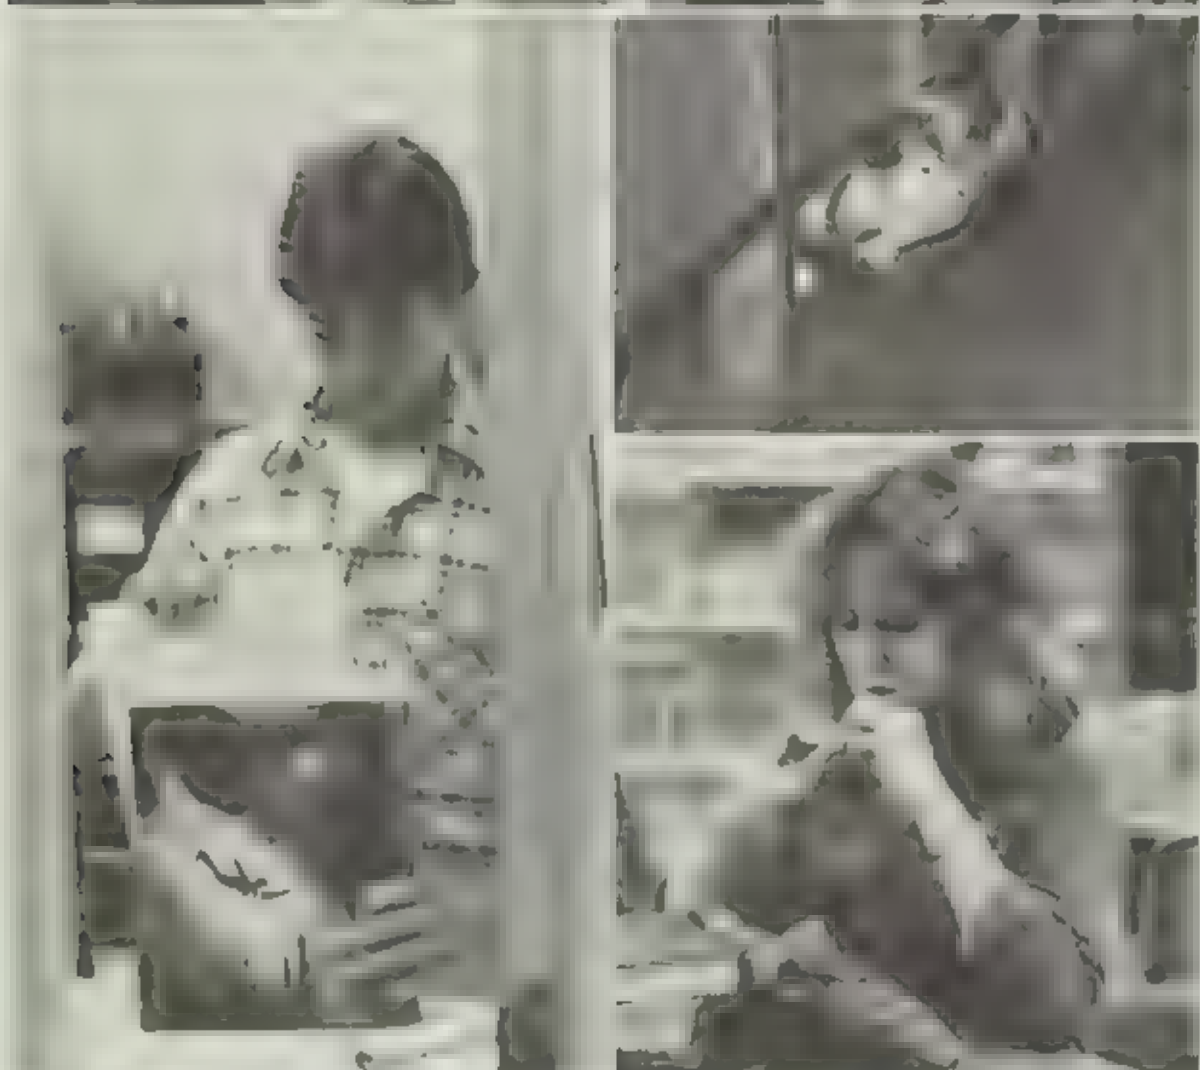

JUNIOR?

SOPHOMORE?

Laura Matthews — 12-P

A student who always gets picked on by the rest of the high school and someone who is blamed for all the congestion in the halls

Terri David — 12-E:

Having to sit on the floor at pep-rallies and being told sophomores stink when you know you wore deodorant

Randy Irvin — 10-C

The poor, sweet, kind, beautiful and gullible person who thinks there is an upstairs, an escalator, and a swimming pool on the roof. But there is a nice side to this, they will be Juniors next year

Bonnie Hollday — 10-L

What ever a Junior or Senior thinks you are

Patricia Myers:

Someone who gets lost and makes the mistake of asking a Senior to help

Donna Navarrete — 12-P

A turkey.

A selected group of Ed White students were asked by the "Odyssey VIII" staff as to their opinions on various subjects. Several observations were made from the results. For example, many of the top movies could also be found in the top ten books. Students also favored the larger, expensive gas guzzling automobiles rather than the smaller economical ones. The Odyssey staff thanks the students for their cooperation. Here are the results.

Allen Mallard and Cindy

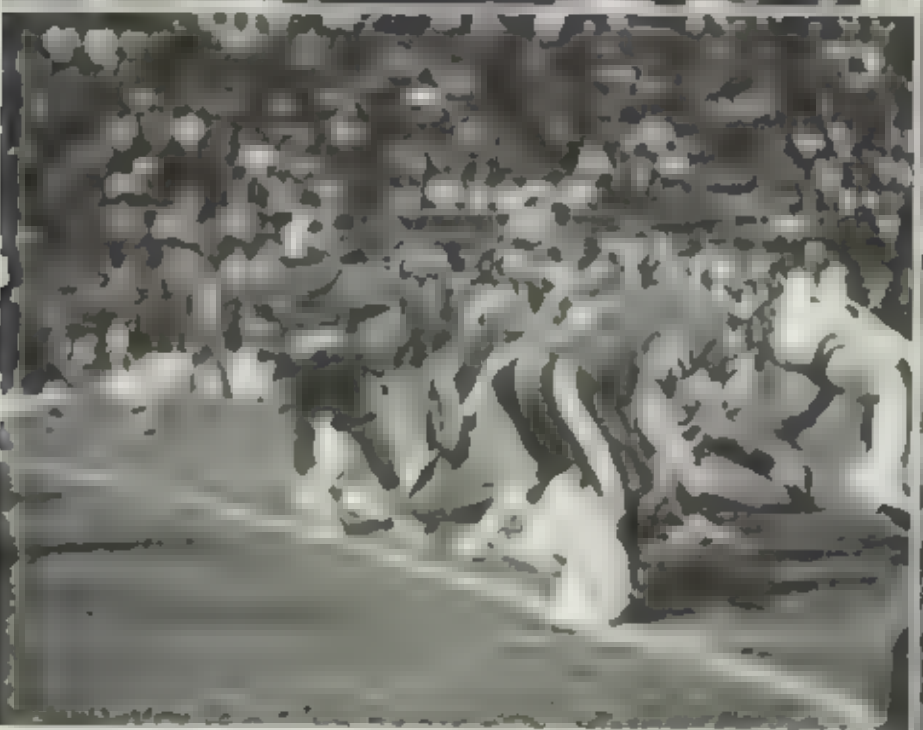

Homecoming '78 is one that shall always be remembered. Preparations and plans were started weeks in advance by the Homecoming committee and chairman, Carla Russell. To start Homecoming Week off with a blast, a pep rally was held the Friday before with a special "Sneak Preview" of Homecoming Week given by the Homecoming Committee. The Homecoming court was announced at the pep rally. The court was Lori Harden, Pat Ellis, JoAnn Sever, Craig Emerine, Dana Morgan, Randy Green, Corrine Sabangan, Randall Duggan, Cindy Thomas, and Allen Mallard.

Thomas Crowned King and Queen.

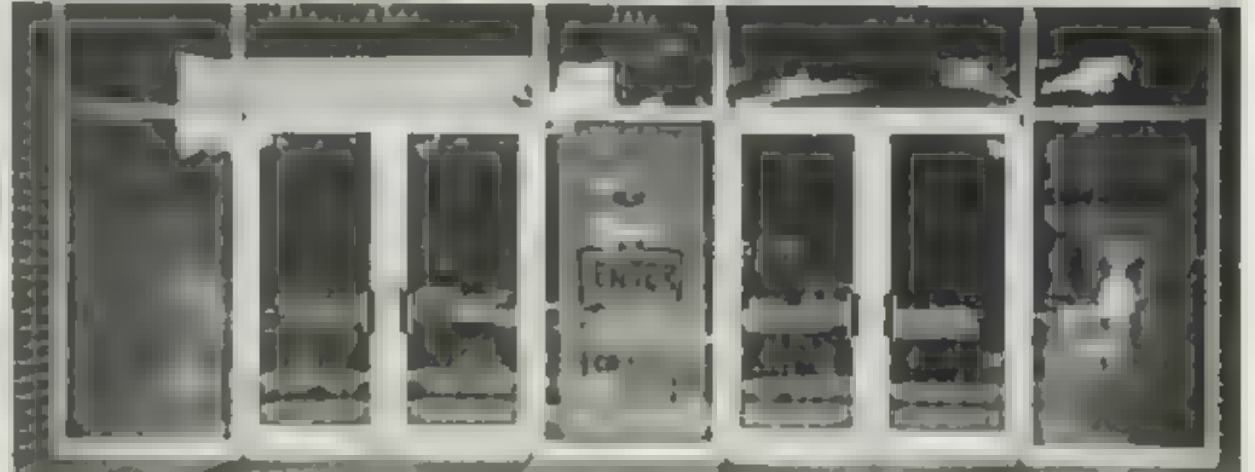

The Homecoming Committee spent many hours preparing "The Big Event", this year's theme. The Days of the Week were centered around the theme using movie titles for each day. Monday, October 9th, was "The Way We Were Day" which was very successful with students dressing as children. Seniors were seen playing "Duck, Duck, Goose", "Red Rover Red Rover", and "Mother, May I" in the cafeteria. Tuesday, the 10th, was "Grease Day — The Commander Way" with bobby socks, crinolines, "greased" hair, and pony tails seen all around the campus. The 11th, Wednesday, was "Ma and Pa Kettle go to Paxon Day", students were dressed in overalls, and gingham shirts, and, of course, farmer hats. Thursday, the 12th, was "Heaven Can Wait for the Eagles Day", on which students dressed in mourning clothes. Thursday night was the annual blast-off pep-rally with many new additions. Held in the Commander Stadium, the Blast-off was emceed by Darlene Denmark and Robert Cantrell. The Homecoming court was introduced to the crowd and the skits, floats, and posters competitions were judged. Junior class was awarded first place in skit, float, and poster competitions.

Even Wet Commanders

Friday, the 13th, should have been bad luck day but not for Commanders. The day started with the annual spirit breakfast held in the cafeteria at 6:30 a.m. Football players, cheerleaders, and sleepy students attended as did Mr Thombleson and the coaching staff. "Freaky Friday" as the day was named showed students wearing green and gold and their spirit hats. Spirit adorned the decorated halls with music, as the Marching Commanders marched through the halls Mod 16. Students and faculty were "fired-up" for Ed White's first Homecoming in the Commander Stadium

Have Spirit!

Eight o'clock-game time, Commander Stadium was packed. Wet skies could not dampen Commander pride. The game started out and ended victorious over the Paxon Eagles. Paxon Marching Eagles presented a pre-game show, forfeiting their time during half-time to the crowning of Homecoming King and Queen. But by half-time, the clouds had burst open, flooding the stands. The Homecoming Court was then transferred to the cafeteria, where the Homecoming Dance was to be held, to await the crowning. After hearing the ending score, White — 34, Paxon — 0, and the arrival of the tired but happy football team, Homecoming King and Queen were announced, Jimmy Wilder and Donna Garrett reigning King and Queen proudly crowned Allen Mallard and Cindy Thomas Homecoming King and Queen 1978

Good Morning, Student! You Are What You Eat!

The start of another perfect day, another perfect breakfast . . . with eggs, toast, sausage, and, of course an all time favorite, Captain Crunch! The perfect breakfast for a high school senior! On schedule, as usual, you sip another glass of orange juice while pausing to reflect on the benefits of a good breakfast. Today you could climb mountains, forge new trails, boldly go where no man has ever gone before (Mrs. Barclay's office during yearbook deadlines) easily become the eighth wonder of the world, and just think it all started with a good breakfast!

His arm goes up like a shot everytime his teacher walks in. "Oh Teacher Teacher! I've got something to say!" "Morning, dear Teacher!" Chalk up another .2 brownie points for Craig Fine.

With blood pulsating at his temples and tendons vibrating in his ripping biceps, triceps, and pectorals, Craig strains to finish his daily work. Always in his mind is his idol, Mark Spitz, whose muscles brought him 3 medals in swimming. Craig's favorite sport, and

And Then Again

. . . .

You Are What You Eat . . .

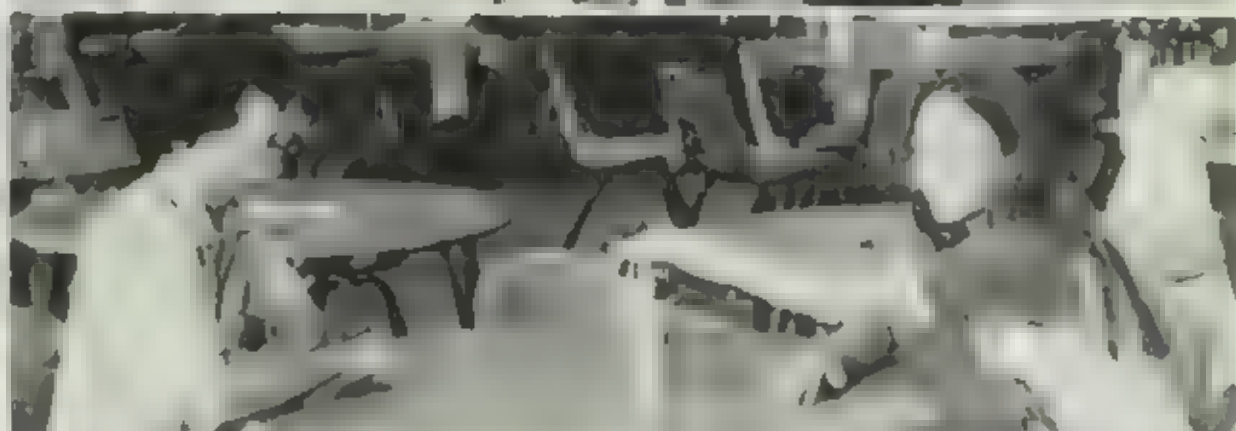

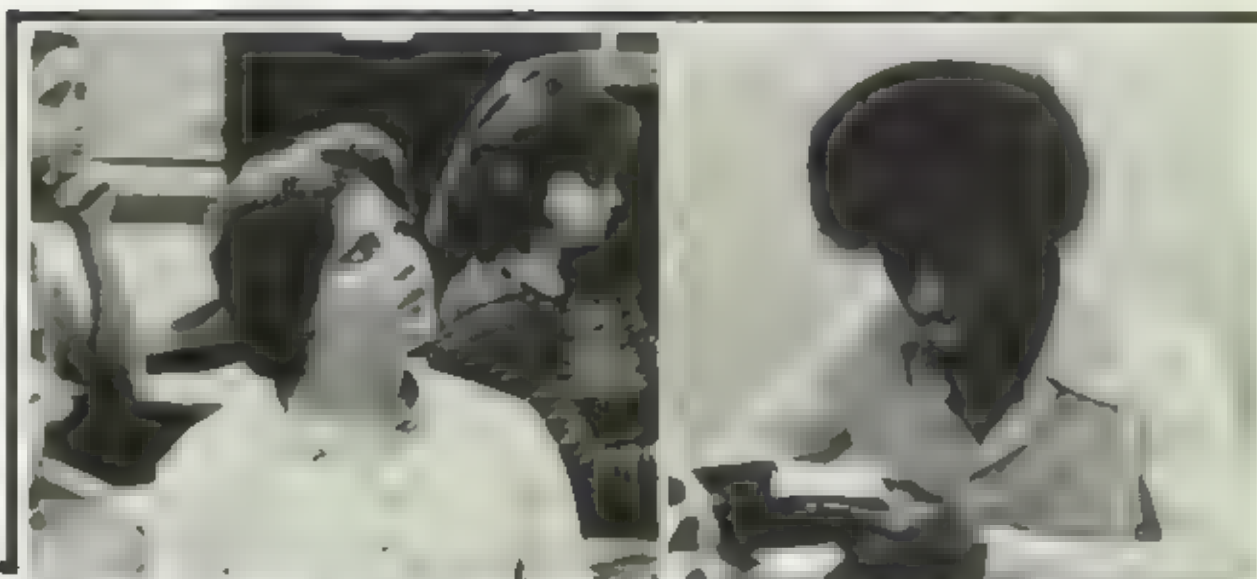

The start of another rotten day, another rotten breakfast . . . your mother burned the toast again and the last of the milk is on the floor. But it doesn't matter . . . you weren't really hungry anyway. Besides, you overslept and there's only time enough to drink the pop you left out last night and grab a few potato chips . . . How nourishing! Today, you can't find the energy to stay awake while walking down the hall, you'll get lost on your way to lunch, accidentally lock yourself in your locker and amaze your teachers with how exhausted you look—and to think it all began with a rotten breakfast.

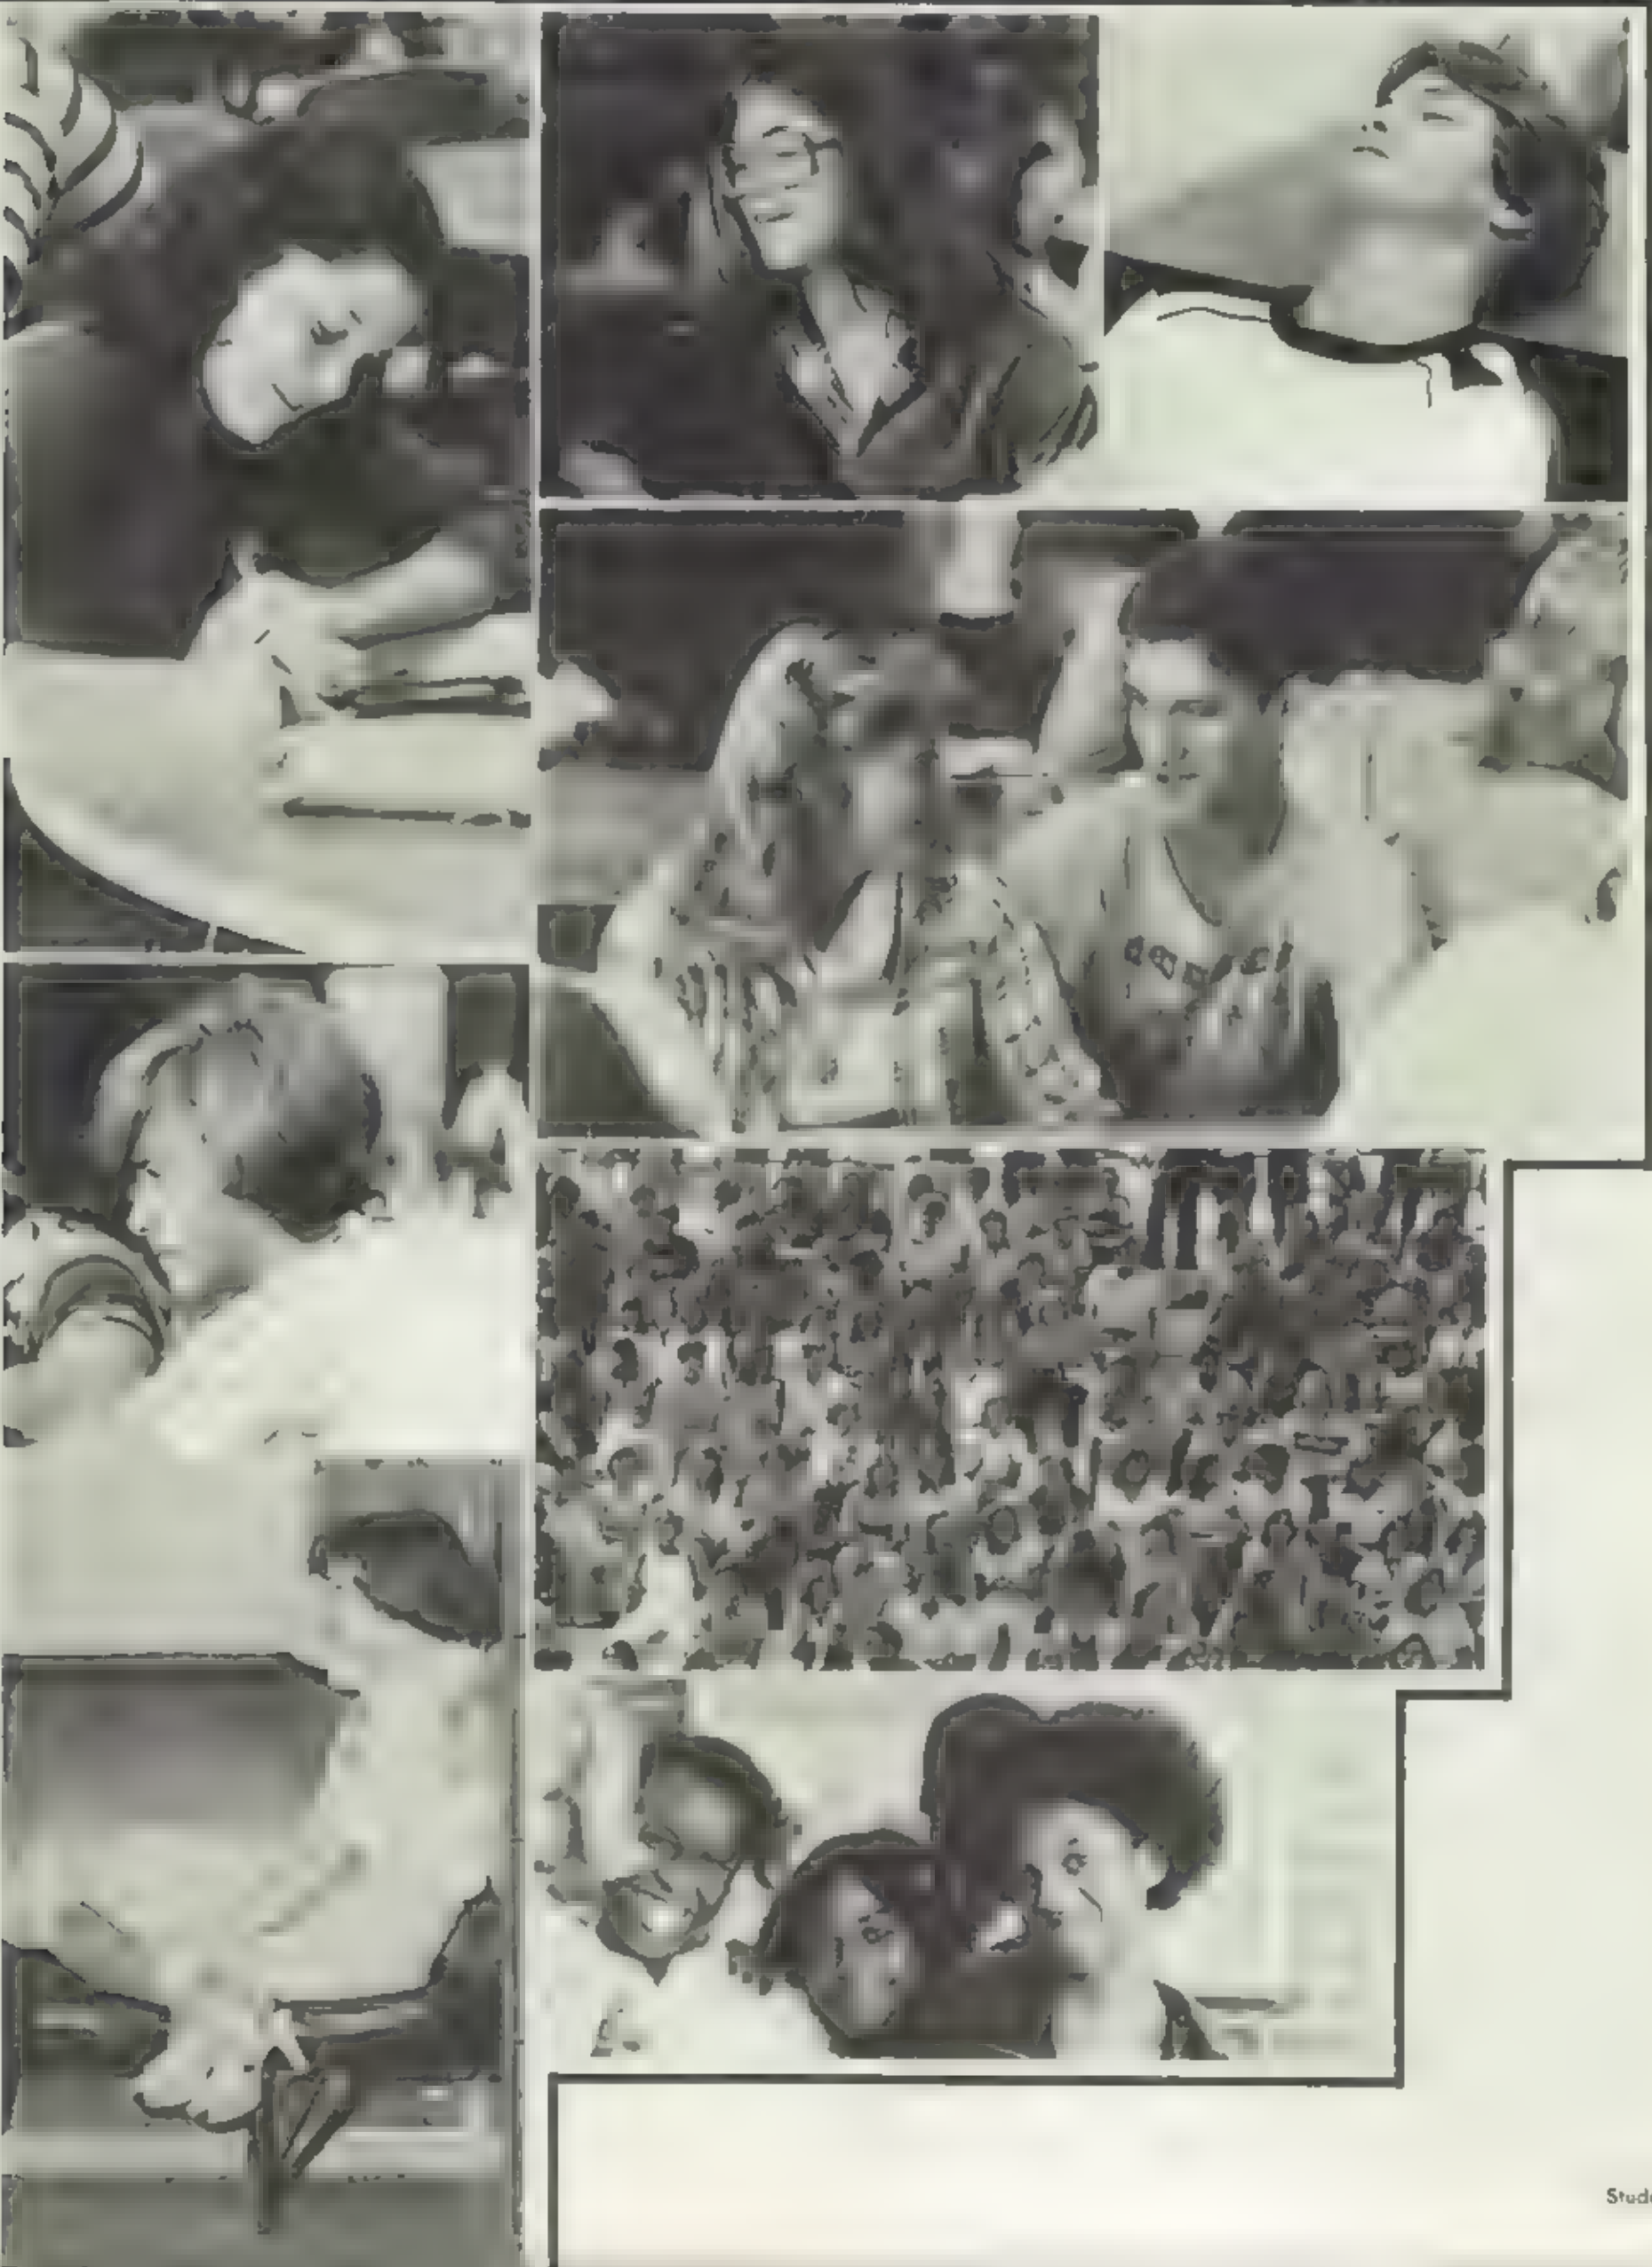

Getting to class on time becomes a struggle for Denise Chadden when her friend Cathy Ormua, decides to take a nap on the way. A brick wall isn't as soft as a pillow, but Cathy—in her weakened condition—hardly seems to notice as she sleepwalks down the hall to her next class.

Tommy Lee, a student at the same school, says he's seen a lot of students who look like they're having a hard time staying awake. He says they're all because of a rotten breakfast.

Here Is What He Envisions

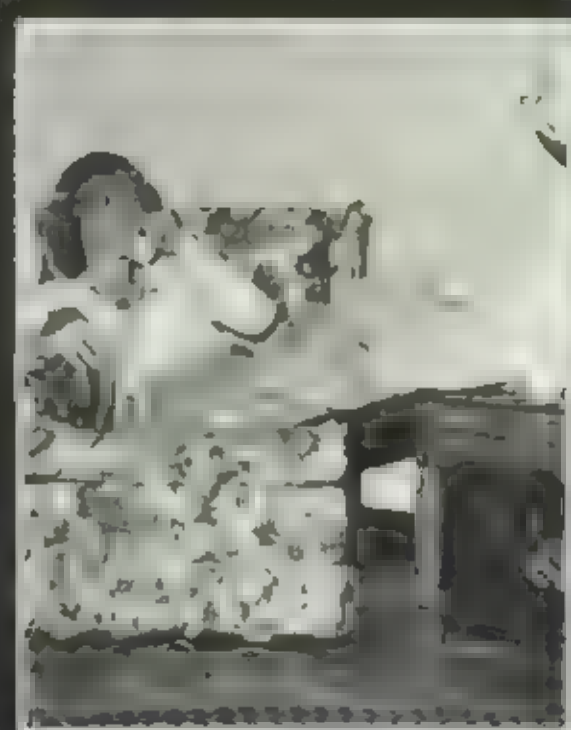

... When He Suggests to Her

Curtis Johnson, dater: After 20 times of dialing the phone and hanging up on the first ring, I finally let someone answer. It was her brother. I heard him say, "Meredith, it's a boy. Are you home?" She came to the phone. "Hi, Curtis, this is Meredith. I mean Meredith this is Curtis. Boy, I'm really doing great. Not knowing what else to do, I accidentally invited myself over to her house, hoping we'd end up alone."

I knew what she meant so we both decided it wouldn't be a good idea to come to her house. I started to get my act together when I remembered this quiet little park that was perfect for a picnic. A romantic dinner for two sounded super to me plus being broke sort of limits the areas of entertainment. Clearing my throat, I made the offer.

Loose lips sink ships and I was going down fast. The Bamboo Luau with 50¢ in my pocket that didn't sound too great, obviously she had misunderstood. Well, time was running out so I decided to change my approach. "Frankly, Meredith, I don't give a damn about fancy dinners. I just want to be alone with you. How about a walk?"

A Portrait

of a date

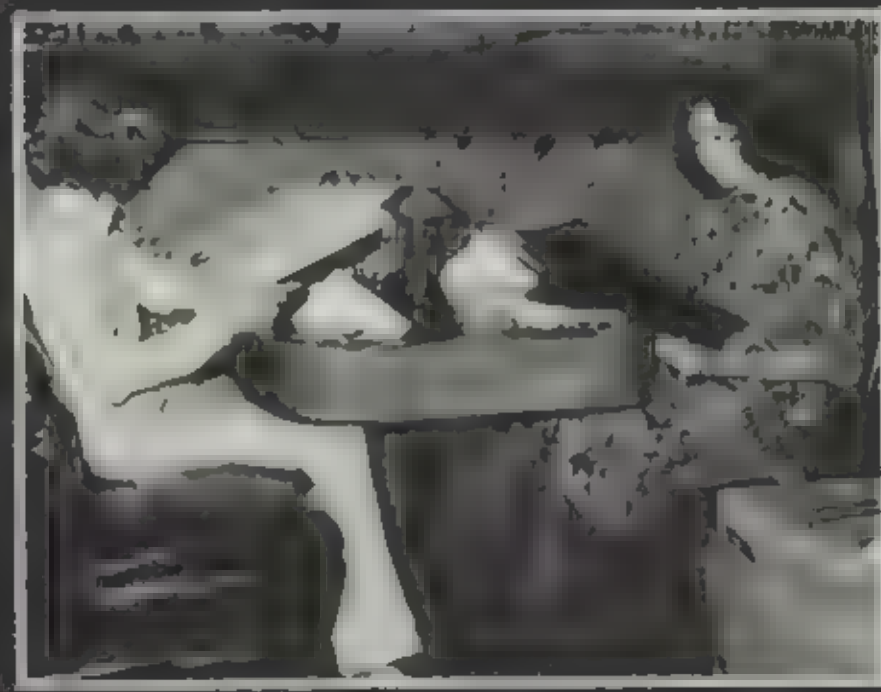

Meanwhile, She Replies to Him . . .

Meredith Chambers, dates: He finally did it! I knew that walking by his locker 10 times a day would eventually pay off. But come to my house? I nearly died. "Curtis, I know my Mom isn't keen about me having guys over. She's bound to send in the terrible twosome to keep us occupied. . . . There simply had to be something better."

Because This Is What She Forsees:

Dinner? Terrific! He must mean the Bamboo Luau, it's quiet and romantic. Boy! He's smarter than I thought. The idea of an expensive dinner was just what I had in mind. "Oh, Curtis, the Bamboo Luau is a perfect place for a romantic dinner for two and how did you know I just love Polynesian food?"

"Curtis, you devil, you. I bet you had that up your sleeve the whole time." Boy, some guys surely have to hand a girl a line before they get down to business. "It sounds wonderful. You're so romantic. . . . a walk on a day like today is a super idea. I'll never get cold walking with you, Curtis."

The ESTABLISHMENT

Mr. Thombleson, Dedicated, Dependable . . .

Mr. John Thombleson has shown his dedication to the education purpose of Edward H. White High School many times throughout the past three years. This willingness in finding new ways of planning and organizing the curriculum and smooth running of the school has paid off on numerous occasions. Mr. Thombleson's school spirit has been evident many times throughout the year as he involved himself in many school activities. Whether it was at a weekend sports event or a 6:30 A.M. spirit breakfast, Mr. "T" was there to show that he truly cares for the students of Ed White Curriculum Trials Are Handled With a Friendly Smile.

Mrs. Sally Griner, the curriculum assistant, has the job of planning educational courses and activities that will be in the best interest of the students. It was under her leadership that Ed White's first walk through scheduling was so successful. Through the many months of planning and organization Mrs. Griner underwent, she made class scheduling much more fun for the students, as well as a cut down in the schedule changes after the school year began. Students and teachers alike owe Mrs. Griner a great deal of thanks.

Mrs. Sally Griner

Molding the Attitudes of Tomorrow.

The Dean's offices at Ed White are very efficiently run through the hard work of Deans Mrs. Renee Atkinson and Mr. Wayne Qualls. They both work for a better atmosphere in which students can grow in knowledge and in fellowship. They work together to provide disciplinary guidance for Ed White. Both deans are concerned for the welfare of the students and try to solve the everyday problems students are confronted with day by day.

Although Mrs. Atkinson has only been the Dean of Girls for two years, she has shown her outstanding ability to work with disciplinary problems. Mrs. Atkinson is a graduate of Florida State University where she received an Educational Specialist Degree.

Correcting Attitudes for a Better Learning Atmosphere.

The understanding and cooperation used in counseling the students makes both Deans respected by all. Their doors are never closed to students, parents and faculty who need assistance in handling problems. Ed White High School is very fortunate in having a qualified Deans of Students such as Mr. Qualls. Mr. W. Qualls is a graduate of the University of Florida with a Masters of Education degree. He enjoys his work and feels that Ed White has excellent facilities for studying and learning. Mr. Qualls teaches High School Review in the community education program

Barclay and Shepherd Co-ordinate School Activities.

Mrs. Brenda Barclay is the Student Activities Director at Ed White. She coordinates all class assemblies and special meetings held during the school day throughout the year. Mrs. Barclay works hard to organize Senior Grad Night, Senior week activities and graduation exercises. Although she is very busy with all of these activities, Mrs. Barclay still finds time to support the Senior Class as a sponsor. She is also the Editorial Advisor for the yearbook. Mrs. Barclay also coordinates the annual Miss Ed White contest. She received her Master's degree in Administration and Supervision from the University of North Florida. Mr. J. Michael Shepherd enjoys being the Community School Coordinator. He takes care of all of the activities outside of regular school hours. Some of his responsibilities are coordinating the community school classes and FJC classes that are held at Ed White during the evening, assigning class rooms for club meetings and community functions and supervising all that is done after hours. Mr. Shepherd is a graduate of Carson Newman College and has a BS degree. He is active in his church activities, is a member of the Hyde Park Masonic Lodge and a hunting club.

The Concentration Center of Ed White.

The Media center staff encouraged the use of their facilities at all times to all unstructured students, as well as class visits with the teacher. The resources include materials for research study and leisure reading. Extensive book and audio-visual collections, magazines and newspapers of special and general interests are all available for usage. The staff is always willing to help students with their special projects whenever needed.

After 40 years of teaching, Mrs. Emma Lou Jones retired in December. Mrs. Jones was the Department Chairman and was a Media Center specialist. Her hard work and dedication has been greatly appreciated throughout her career at Ed White. Mrs. Sue B. Palmer has been serving the Media Center for five years. She appreciated the fine quality of the attractive building and library. She was the Civinettes sponsor for three years. Mrs. Palmer helps students in research and studies in which the library facilities are needed. Mrs. Annette Walker has been with the school media center since its beginning eight years ago. Music Makes the World Go A-round.

The Music Department at Ed White offers students a chance to relax and enjoy themselves while doing something beneficial for the school. The chorus sings at many school functions, as well as holding concerts throughout the school year. The talents of the band members have been seen on numerous occasions through halftime performances during football season and concerts held by the symphonic and stage bands. Both organizations offer special attractions such as the chorus ensembles and the band flag corps and majorettes. A great deal of school spirit has been derived over the years from the music department.

Mr. Roy McCance is one of our two music coordinators at Ed White. He directs the bands, flag corps and majorettes. Mr. McCance is a graduate of Jacksonville University with a masters degree. Mr. Eugene White is the choral director at Ed White. Class of "79"

With such activities as Homecoming, Grad Night, Mr. Ed White and the finale, graduation, to organize as well as look forward to, the senior class was always hustling with activity and excitement. For a lot of students, this year was their last and they were determined to make it the best! The senior class's other responsibilities were to promote school spirit and set examples for the other students to follow, which they handled with great ease. It can be said that the class of '79 has truly been the "Class with Class."

The Senior Class would like to thank their sponsors for all the hard work and support that they have given this year to make it the best ever. The sponsors were Mrs. Brenda Barclay, Mr. Eddie Edmunds, Mrs. Helene Kirkpatrick, Mr. Herb Taskett, Mr. Tom Scott, Mrs. Loweta Johnson.

Juniors are

The Junior Class displayed a great deal of spirit this year. It was shown by their unending work and energy throughout the Homecoming preparations and paid off by their winning first place in both skit and float presentations. They sponsored the Junior Senior Prom and had a magazine sale to finance it. The leadership of the class officers and sponsors, together with the willing and eager students, made the Junior class a well organized, ready to work class.

The Junior Class would like to thank their sponsors for all the hard work and support that they gave them this year to make it the best year the Junior's have ever had. The Junior Class sponsors were: Mr. Wayne Cantrell, Mr. Stewart Dowless, and Miss Tere Jerrett.

Kelly Morgan takes

Although the sophomores had a new school and very different schedules to work with, they soon became adjusted to their new way of life. They were quick to get involved in school activities, and will work hard to see that their years at Ed White will be happy ones. They will be admired throughout the year as a class with much school spirit. Mrs. Annette Walker served as sophomore class sponsor.

Faculty chooses

Ed Croft

Ed Croft's outstanding achievements in academics and unique personality has made him a favorite among senior students. Ed was a member of the Lann Club and of the National Honor Society. He was a member of the track and cross country teams during his sophomore year. Ed enjoys drawing, reading and writing and considers himself contemplative and shy. The senior class recognized Ed's brightness when they voted him "Most Likely to Succeed." After graduation, Ed plans to attend the University of Florida and his major is undecided.

Steve Austin

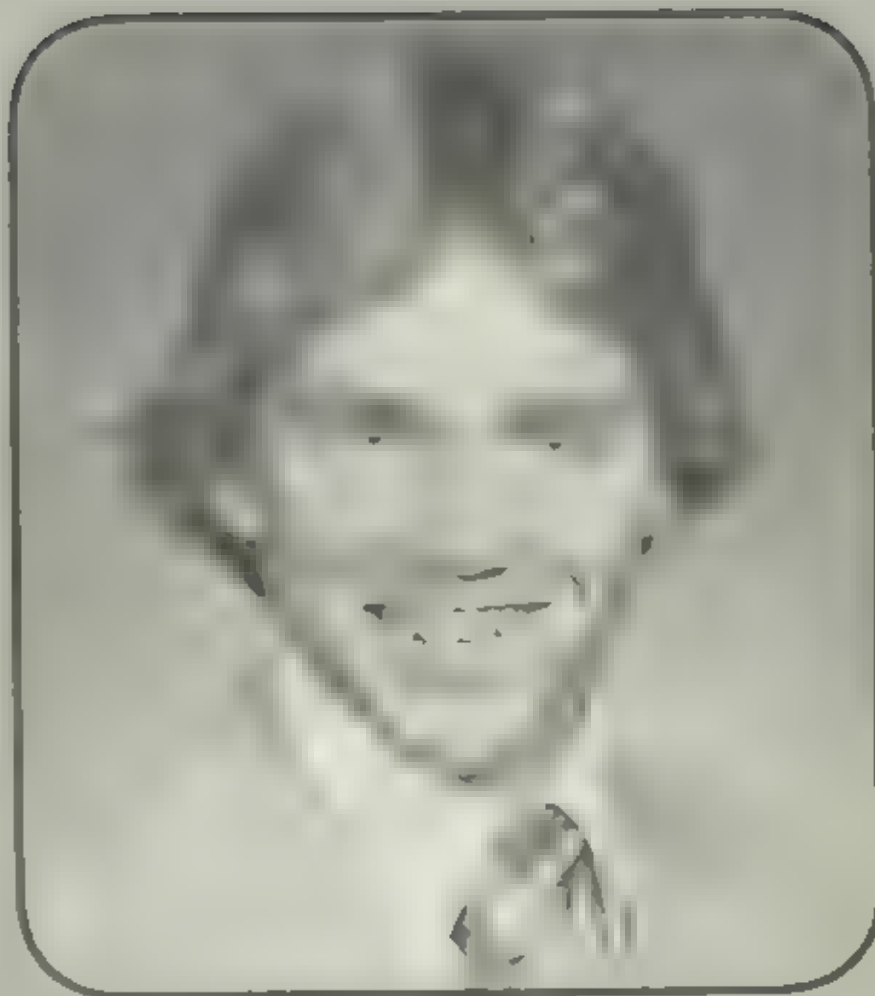

Determined and likable are just two of Steve Austin's outstanding qualities. Steve's involvement in sports at Ed White was evident as he was a member of both the basketball and track teams. Steve was awarded the title of "Leading Rebounder" in his junior year, "All Tournament" in the Forest Invitational, and was named All Conference. Steve was a member of the Key Club and served as a mascot for the Keyettes. He enjoys skiing, hunting, and listening to music. Steve plans to attend college and major in law or law enforcement.

outstanding seniors.

Craig Emerine

His ability to get along with others and his involvement in Ed White are just two ways of describing Craig Emerine. Craig's outgoing personality did not go unnoticed as he was elected junior class president, Student Council historian, and was voted a member of the 1978 Homecoming Court. Craig was a member of the swim team, where he was awarded All Conference twice. Craig was a member of the soccer team his senior year. He enjoys surfing, swimming, and photography. The senior class recognized Craig's outgoingness and voted him "Best All Around." Craig plans to attend a four year University and major in Computer Programming. Craig then plans to become a Commercial Airline Pilot.

Janet Ezell

Janet Ezell is a young lady whose interests are wide and varied. Her many school activities include President of the National Honor Society, Treasurer of the Future Business Leaders of America Club II, and was a member of the Ed White Club. Janet's emphasis in studies at Ed White has been in the business field. In her spare time, she enjoys helping other students, collecting coins and stamps, car racing, and camping. After graduation, Janet plans to attend Florida Junior College and the University of North Florida and major in accounting. Janet plans to become a Certified Public Accountant.

Lori Harden

Integrity and sincerity are two of Lori Harden's outstanding qualities. Lori has been very active during her three years at Ed White. She has been a member of Zeta Sigma for three years, a Student Council representative for two years and a varsity cheerleader for two years. Lori was a member of the Odyssey VI staff her sophomore year, and Key Club Sweetheart her junior year. Lori was elected to the 1978 Homecoming Court, received first runner-up in the 1978 Miss Ed White Contest and received third runner-up in the 1978 Jacksonville Junior Miss Contest. Lori enjoys swimming, water skiing, and dancing. Lori plans to attend a four-year university and major in Psychology.

Joey Higginbotham

Joey Higginbotham's studious nature and dependable personality has truly been an asset to Ed White. Joey was an active member of the Latin Club, in which he served as treasurer, and the National Honor Society. Joey enjoys football, basketball, and building model railroads in his spare time. He enjoys working in his church. Joey's plans for after graduation include attending Florida State University, where he will major in mathematics or meteorology.

These Titan Seniors were selected by the faculty on the basis

Outstanding qualities.

Kenny Lynch

Kenny Lynch's outstanding and independent personality has made him a favorite among Ed White students. Kenny has been an active member of the National Honor Society for two years and a member of the Latin club his junior year. Kenny played Junior Varsity Basketball and has been a member of both the Track and Cross Country teams. Kenny was awarded All Conference, All District, and All Region for 1977 and 1978. Kenny enjoys all sports and listening to music. His plans for after graduation are undecided as far as a college is concerned, although he hopes to work for the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Teresa Jeter

The two best words to describe Theresa Jeter are determined and dependable. Her bright smile and cheerful words made her a favorite among both faculty and student body. Theresa served as class chaplain in her junior year and as Student Council chaplain in her senior year. Also in her senior year she was president of Forensics, a club in which she had participated in for three years along with Chorus and Drama. Her future plans are to attend Florida Junior College and then transfer to Jacksonville University majoring in history. She then hopes to do museum work or be an archivist.

of their outstanding scholastic and leadership qualities and how they applied them

Tina Samuel

Tina Samuel's energetic and persevering personality has made her a favorite among Ed White students. Tina has been active in many clubs during her three years at Ed White. Tina was a member of the National Honor Society, the Singing Commanders, the Mat Girls, and D.C.A. Tina has been active in sports, such as volleyball, and active in G.A.A.D. in her senior year. Tina served as assistant librarian of the Chorus and Chaplain of D.C.A. Blue. Tina enjoys sewing, singing, and swimming and is very active in Church. Tina plans to attend college in Chicago, Illinois where she plans to major in the field of math. Tina plans a career in Computer Program-

Carla Russell

Leadership and responsibility are just two of Carla Russell's outstanding traits. Carla has shown her dependability and organizational ability while serving as Editor-in-Chief of the 1979 Odyssey. Carla was also the President of the second chapter of Ed White's Future Business Leaders of America club. She has been a member of the Student Council for three years. Carla has shown involvement and service during her three years at Ed White. She has served as Prom Chairman, Homecoming Chairman, and Stage Manager for the Miss Ed White Talent Preliminaries. Carla proudly represented Ed White in the 1978 Jacksonville Junior Miss Contest. Her plans for the future are to attend Florida Junior College and then transfer to the University of Florida, where she will major in Business Administration.

Perdita Williams

Perdita Williams has certainly displayed pride and involvement in Ed White. Perdita has been an active member of the Ed White Singing Commanders for three years. She has demonstrated academic achievement in her course of study. Outside of school, Perdita is active in the Sunday School and youth choir of her church. During her junior year, Perdita's dramatic talent, charm, poise and personality won her the position of Second runner-up, Miss Ed White. Some of Perdita's many hobbies are creative writing, dramatics, swimming and cooking. After graduation, Perdita plans to attend college and major in Education and Communication.

JoAnn Sever

Jo Ann Sever has truly been an asset to Ed White. Her dependability, responsibility, and leadership qualities were shown as she served as Student Council President during her senior year. During her sophomore year, JoAnn served as Keyettes Treasurer and Sophomore Class Historian. In her junior year, she held the offices of Keyettes vice-president and Student Council treasurer. Her classmates showed their appreciation for JoAnn as she was elected to the Homecoming Court and was voted "Best All Around." JoAnn enjoys running, horseback riding, and dancing. She plans to attend college and major in Business Administration and Marketing. JoAnn plans a career in the accounting field.

Odyssey VIII Staff: preserving memories through an outstanding yearbook.

The 1978-79 Odyssey staff spent many hours working on layouts, designing pages and striving for a quality yearbook. The staff tried to capture the events, activities and most of all the people that made this school year a special one for the students of Ed White. Under the supervision of Mrs. Brenda Barclay, the yearbook staff overcame various obstacles and technical problems to provide the students with a pictorial history of their years at Ed White. This year's editor Carla Russell, has provided the staff with outstanding leadership qualities and abilities. She spent a great deal of her spare time and holidays checking and re-checking layouts of the various sections in order to produce an outstanding yearbook.

Newspaper staff informs the students.

The 1978-79 Commanders Log staff put in many hours to bring the students the school newspaper. Through the hard work of both editor — Toni Martin and sponsor Mrs. Hawk the "Commander's Log" newspaper was always a success. The dedication of the staff always was appreciated when Ed White students first read each issue of the Commanders Log. Fund raising activities included sponsoring the first dance, a flower sale, several car washes, a candy gram sale, selling Christmas ornaments, and sponsoring a Valentine dance.

N.H.S. Is Not Scholarship Alone.

The purpose of the National Honor Society is to create an enthusiasm for scholarship, to stimulate a desire to render service, to promote worthy leadership and to encourage the development of character in all students of Ed White. Members of the NHS were selected by the faculty on leadership, scholarship, character, and service. A $200 scholarship was also awarded by NHS. Throughout the year, members have assisted in the walk-through scheduling, Homecoming Float, Thanksgiving baskets, and the formal induction of new members. They prepared the honor roll for each nine weeks, had a calendar sale, wrapped Christmas presents for hospital patients, and had a Christmas party. The National Honor Society attended a district meeting where they submitted a scrapbook to be judged. The officers of the National Honor Society were President, Janet Ezell; Vice President, Bill Brunson; Secretary, Susan Bell; Treasurer, Paige Thomas; Historian, Gloria Schmidt; Sgt. at Arms, Wayne Tipton; and Chaplain, Debbie Aspinwall.

Student Council Provides School Government.

The Student Council was dedicated to providing a representative form of government for the betterment of the student body and the school. This year's Student Council worked very hard to bring out the democratic qualities of Edward H. White Senior High. Student Council led Commanders through Homecoming with great spirit and pride. During the month of December Student Council sponsored several Christmas activities. The goals accomplished this year by the Student Council will be long remembered by the student body.

Fashion through the centuries . . .

Fashion Merchandising is a program open to all twelfth grade students interested in learning more about the vast field of fashion. The class which is a part of the Distributive Education program at Ed White prepares the students for careers in fashion. The students study personal development, color, line and design. Sources of fashion, buying and fashion coordination are also studied under this program. Many fashion show techniques are studied during the year. Under the coordination of Mrs. Trudye Blackard, the class has shown many variations of styles including past, present and future styles. The 1979 Fashion Merchandising class is the first group of girls since the school opened to tour New York City. They visited fashion designers, showrooms, Seventeen magazine headquarters, and much more. The experience gained will help them further their careers in Fashion Merchandising.

DECA Blue is working for you.

The Distributive Education Clubs of America — DECA is a national organization with a program of leadership, personal development, and career encouragement. The DECA Blue is to all DE students what a civic or professional organization is to a group of businessmen. The purpose of the curricular clubs is to further develop education in marketing and distribution which will contribute to occupation competence and to promote understanding and appreciation for the responsibilities of citizenship in our private, competitive enterprise systems. DECA Blue won many awards and trophies — the District and State competition. The highlight of the year was the Annual Employer-Employee Banquet.

FBLA and CBE: We Mean Business!

FBLA was an in-class part of CBE-Cooperative Business Education. FBLA is a national organization designed to develop the business leaders of tomorrow. FBLAers participated in business competition such as accounting, typing, data processing, and about fifteen other contests. The Ed White FBLA Chapter was one of the most active and successful in Duval County. The most important activity in CBE-FBLA was the annual Employer Luncheon. The luncheon expresses appreciation to the employers for their help by providing office experience for the CBE students. Upon graduation, the majority of students became full-time office employees with the same company where they had been working as CBE students. The colors were blue and gold. The officers of FBLA were President, Barbara Wells; Vice President, Kathy Anderson; Secretary, Sharon Norton; Treasurer, Karen Smith; Historian, Lori White; Reporter, Rose Carter; Chaplain, Margie Hornack; Parliamentarian, Jeanie Lundborg.

All the School's a Stage

The drama class at Ed White promotes interest in acting as a career or as a hobby. The students are taught how to develop their own style of acting. They have participated in District State Drama Conferences and they also presented a Christmas Story Stage in the Orange Park Mall.

The Drama Club worked hand in hand with the drama class in presenting plays for the school. The club and class presented a dinner theatre in the round for their spring production. The club gives the student body an opportunity to view dramatic presentations and provides an outlet for the talent in the school who is interested in drama. Throughout the year the drama club participated in various competitions such as District and State Thespian Conferences and several members received excellent and Superior ratings. The officers were president, David Fitzgerald; Vice President, Mary Copeland; Secretary, Katherine Ruark; Treasurer, Kelly Carter; Historian, Marlene Stuckey.

NJROTC prepares . . .

The development of citizenship, leadership, patriotism, team work, and maintaining high standards of personal conduct and appearance are the main goals of the Naval Junior Reserve Officers Training Corps. They were involved in a great many activities which are of importance to the school and community. They included a special unit assigned as a parking detail for all of the home football games, conducting the color guard at the games, and raising and lowering the flag each day. The training and skills taught in NJROTC have prepared students to proceed into a career in the service upon graduation.

Amateur Radio Is in Touch With the World.

One of the main goals of the Amateur Radio Club at Ed White is to promote an exchange of information and cooperation between members and the community. The club helps to advance the general interest and welfare of amateur radio in the community. The club's activities provide an atmosphere which may be enjoyed by persons interested in the pursuit of electronics as a career. One of the major activities of the club was their holiday radiogram exchange which was provided to the school free of charge during various holidays. The officers of the club were Steve Nissen, President; Kelly Carter, Vice-President; and Michael Moore who acted as both Secretary and Treasurer.

Mass Media filming is their specialty.

Mass Media is an exciting class offered at Ed White. Under the direction of Mr. Rellie Lyman, the class has done tremendous work. Some of which included learning how to operate video taping equipment. Mass Media hopes to establish a closed circuit television in Ed White and they hope to produce a morning newscast on school happenings. The students in Mass Media worked very hard studying the techniques used in filming.

ENTRE NOUS, LE CLUB FRANCAIS

One of the clubs at Ed White which has reached its attempted goals is the French Club-Entre Nous. They have maintained their togetherness of the club and its purpose. Their purpose as French students is to broaden their cultural horizons beyond the classroom by looking further into the customs and way of life of the French people and the beauty and significance of the language. The members had a dinner at the French restaurant, a costume ball, a picnic at Fort Caroline and the first attempt at a homecoming float. The French Club participated in French contest at Jacksonville University in April and consistently received ribbons for their achievements in French culture and the language.

ilas Fiestas españolas son muy divertidas!

New changes have taken place with the Spanish Club at Ed White. The traditional name of Que Pasa has been changed to Los Bandidos and the colors red and yellow are now green, red and white. Throughout the year the Spanish Club has participated in the Spanish Conference in Orlando, and hosted a very successful Christmas party for all foreign language clubs as well as participated in their own social events. The officer of Los Bandidos are Tina Roberts, president; Mary Ramsay, vice president; Donna Beck, secretary; Brenda Cross, treasurer; Meredith Chambers Darryl Painter, historians; David Belger, Sgt.-at-Arms. The club activities extend the members' knowledge of Spanish that classroom work cannot do.

Latin Is Alive and Well.

District and State conventions were the highlight of the year for the Latin Club. They promoted interest and appreciation for the cultural value of classical civilization in an informal and social atmosphere and promoted academic competition in classical subjects on the district and state level. This year the club took on the great responsibility of planning and hosting the State Latin Forum which was held in April. The officers of the Latin Club were President, Ken Brown; Vice President, Mike Eryn; Secretary, Raenele Carroll; Treasurer, Joe H. Z. Johnson; Historian, Jeanette Lyman; Sponsor was Miss Linda Gaskin. Latin students had the opportunity to see chariot races, authentic costumes, banquets, and other examples of the Roman Civilization which the Latin language is derived from.

Strike Up the Band!

One of the many highlights of the 1978-79 Marching Band was their participation during half-time at the Orange Bowl in Miami. The band represented Ed White well this year when they received a superior rating in the Marching Band Contest. Also, several students were chosen from the band to represent Ed White in the All County Band. They attended Six Flags over Georgia in April and played in the Main Street Parade at Disney World.

Commanders Welcome

Ed White faced a regular this year this season as they are twenty-two seconds for last year's squad. The competitors are led by one of the Gateway's best passers, Junior Rick Wampler. One of the highlights of the year for passers was his fact that was White's desire to be a team score of 132. Next year White is expected to be a team for the Gateway Western Conference class.

Cross Country Team Carries

What did the Cross Country Team accomplish this year? They were 48-27-0 overall record, 6-1-0 in conference meets; fifth in the F S U. Invitational, second at the Conference championship, and District 2 champions.

"Over all it was a good season. We have still not reached all the goals that have been established, but they will come," Coach Dunn remarked. Although hurt by the graduation of all-conference, District and Region runners Kenny Lynch (15:24), Lewis Lawrence (15:37) and Mike Bugbee, the outlook is good for next season.

"Odyssey VIII" salutes

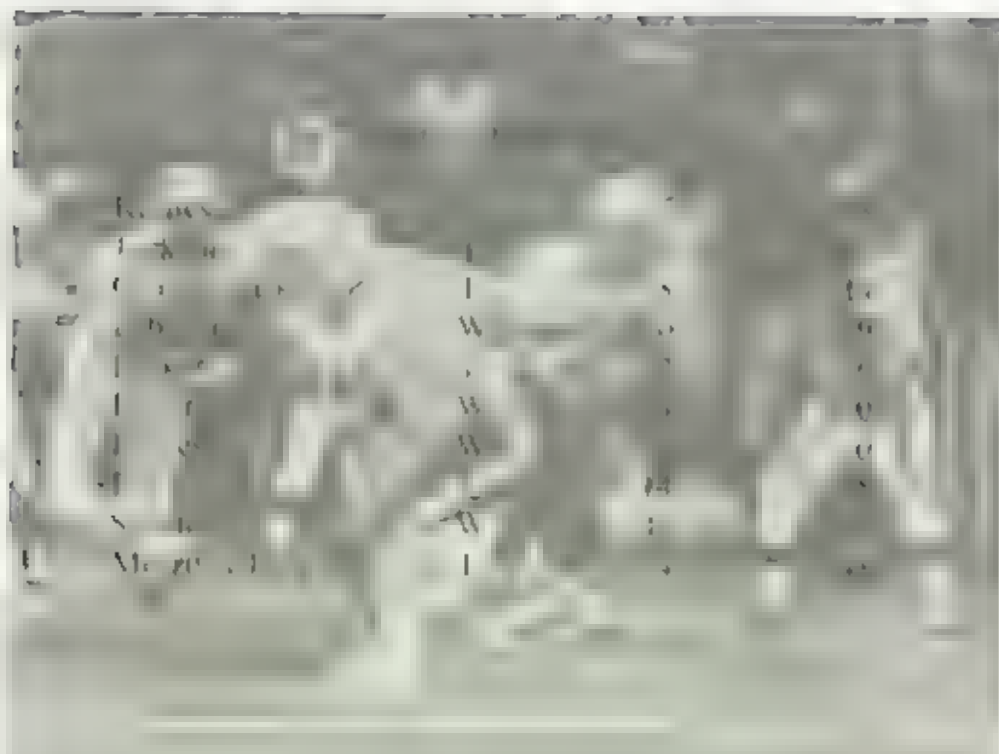

C Coach Barry Gardner and his 1978-79 Soccer team finished the regular season with an 21-7-2 record. Looking for stiffer competition, our talented athletes played in the Seminole Christmas Classical. This was the first time any team from this area has competed in this celebrated tournament. The Commanders finished fourth out of the eight highly skilled teams.

In area play, the Commanders won the Bolles Christmas Tournament. Soccer became a conference sport this season for the first time and Ed White was the recipient of the conference title. Defense was a strong characteristic as the team recorded twelve shut-outs. The Commanders led the city in total offense with 88 goals in 24 games. The team is seeded number one in the district and ranked third in the state. The Commanders hosted the state play-offs in the Commander Stadium and also held a soccer clinic sponsored by the Coca Cola Company and the North American Soccer League's Tampa Bay Rowdies. The community and student body should be very proud of the outstanding achievements of the 1978-79 Soccer team.

PATRONS

The final materialization of this, our eighth "Odyssey" is the result of many long hours of hard work. It is even more the encouragement and support of many people — both faculty and administration at our school and parents and concerned friends in our community. The following people went a step further and supported us financially — a gesture which in itself makes us deeply appreciative.

Yeah,

you are a different kind of friend. Going out of town on the spur of the minute or getting sick all the time. it must be nice to be able to stay home 10 days anyway, sorry we didn't get in the same classes. Maybe we can next year. Hope to see you over the summer ~~oops!~~ ^{oops!}

Yeah, you're a very nice girl ...
 Mr. Becker is ... can you ... to school and ...
 like him. stay sweet and stay near me; and if I were you I would ... no advice;
 even though the end is near; Please don't get ...
 ...; well its time to say goodbye; ...
 ... a lot in my eye; see you soon and don't see pretty; because we won't be leaving

Editor's Note

When remembering your years here at Ed White, I hope the 1978-79 school year has made as many special memories for you as it has for me. Today and tomorrow, I sincerely hope as you look through this yearbook, you will be able to relive these memories through the work that the Odyssey VIII staff has put into this book. The staff tried to capture the various activities, organizations, and most of all, the people, that have made your year special.

In terms of actual production, the staff spent many hours working on layouts, designs, and new, creative ideas. I hope that the staff will never forget our lives together in the yearbook room. They have certainly made this a year none of us will soon forget. Just to remind them of the times we spent together: "What do you mean it goes in this deadline? This is my page! The juniors broke the camera! I quit! What about togs? Robert and Mac knock it off! Since when do you have a conflict? This isn't working! What's a cropper? Hi Guy! No, we can't salute the family. Never yell at an editor, she can always yell louder! This is it people! MONA! Who ate the grease pencil? Where's the job stamp? This is #13 something's bound to go wrong! Wonder what happened to all the football pictures of #13 and #51! Well, what about the togs? Don't call me boss! Animal Staff is on the loose." I would like to thank the Odyssey VIII staff for all their time, hard work, and most of all, your friendship.

Special appreciation and thanks is given to Mrs. Brenda Barclay, Editorial Adviser. She has put up with the trials, frustrations, and tribulations of being adviser to this staff, which is more than anyone could expect out of any sane person. I would like to thank her for all her time, support, friendship, and most of all, her love, which is most appreciated and sincerely returned. I feel that just saying thanks is not enough for such a special lady.

The staff and myself are also indebted to: Mr. Kyle Duncan, our Taylor Publishing Company representative, for his understanding, patience and his guiding hand in all of our problems; Mr. Stan Ballinger and his staff at Bryn-Alan did many favors for the staff with their last minute schedules and rushes. I would also like to thank Mr. Mick Bowden, a photographer, for all his special help and friendship that he has given to the staff and myself; Mrs. Marva Salary, Business Adviser, and Kay Key, Business manager, for their fine handling of the books, sales, and financial problems that occurred within the space of the year. I would also like to thank Mrs. Salary's Business Law class for their eagerness to help out in any way possible.

In addition, I would like to thank some very special staff members. Your hard work, support, and willingness to take on any given responsibility made my job a lot easier. Thank you, Debbie Oliphant, Tammy Dick, Meredith Chambers, and Debbie Petersen for all your help, and last but not least, Darlene Denmark, for giving me your friendship and the extra push I often needed to keep things going. The person, I feel, that deserves thanks most of all is my mom. Thanks, Mom, for putting up with me through every page of this yearbook.

Finally, I am especially grateful for the co-operation of the students, faculty, and administration who were sometimes inconvenienced on several occasions when pictures were taken or information was needed to write copy. It was only with the help, effort, and understanding of these people, along with the financial investments of the local business organizations and parents, that the Odyssey VIII staff was able to bring you the memories of Ed White's 1978-79 school year.

Best Wishes

Della Russell

Leah,

It's been quite a different experience

knowing you this year,

especially calling

you "Margaret". You're really a great friend

& it's been nice knowing

you. Keep in touch - 7833383.

Good luck & stay blessed.

Heads, not a year's work you were spent most of her time
going around the world
If you should have stayed here you would've shot of world flats

Oh,
 I've been really fun in History together (even though it was boring) but Mrs. White won't forget with us. Well, hope we get in some classes together next year. Thanks to being over a good friend. Keep in touch over the summer.
